

Men Journeying Through Grief

Free, open gatherings for men only of all ages who have experienced the death of a loved one.

Though the experience of grief is not limited to men alone, there are sometimes differences in the ways men and women express and process their grief. Messages from our culture and the ways men have been raised can be obstacles to journeying through grief.

The death being grieved may have taken place recently or long ago—there is no time limit to grief.

Please join us for a home-cooked meal followed by sharing of grief information and support resources. Opportunities for discussion take place throughout the evening facilitated by Allen Borgwardt, Senior Lifestyle Consultant with CRL, and Dan Edwards, Chaplain with AVN-Hospice.
