

Partners with Our Lady of Victory Hospital presents the

Love Light Christmas Tree

Purchase a light to honor a loved one

The Love Light Christmas Tree has become an annual symbol of community Christmas spirit. The tree shines with lights that represent your honored friends and family members.

The tree lighting ceremony will be held Wednesday, December 2 in the Our Lady of Victory Hospital Atrium.

6 p.m. Refreshments • 6:30 p.m. Tree Lighting

Refreshments provided by OLVH.

All proceeds go to help with special equipment or community needs at Our Lady of Victory.

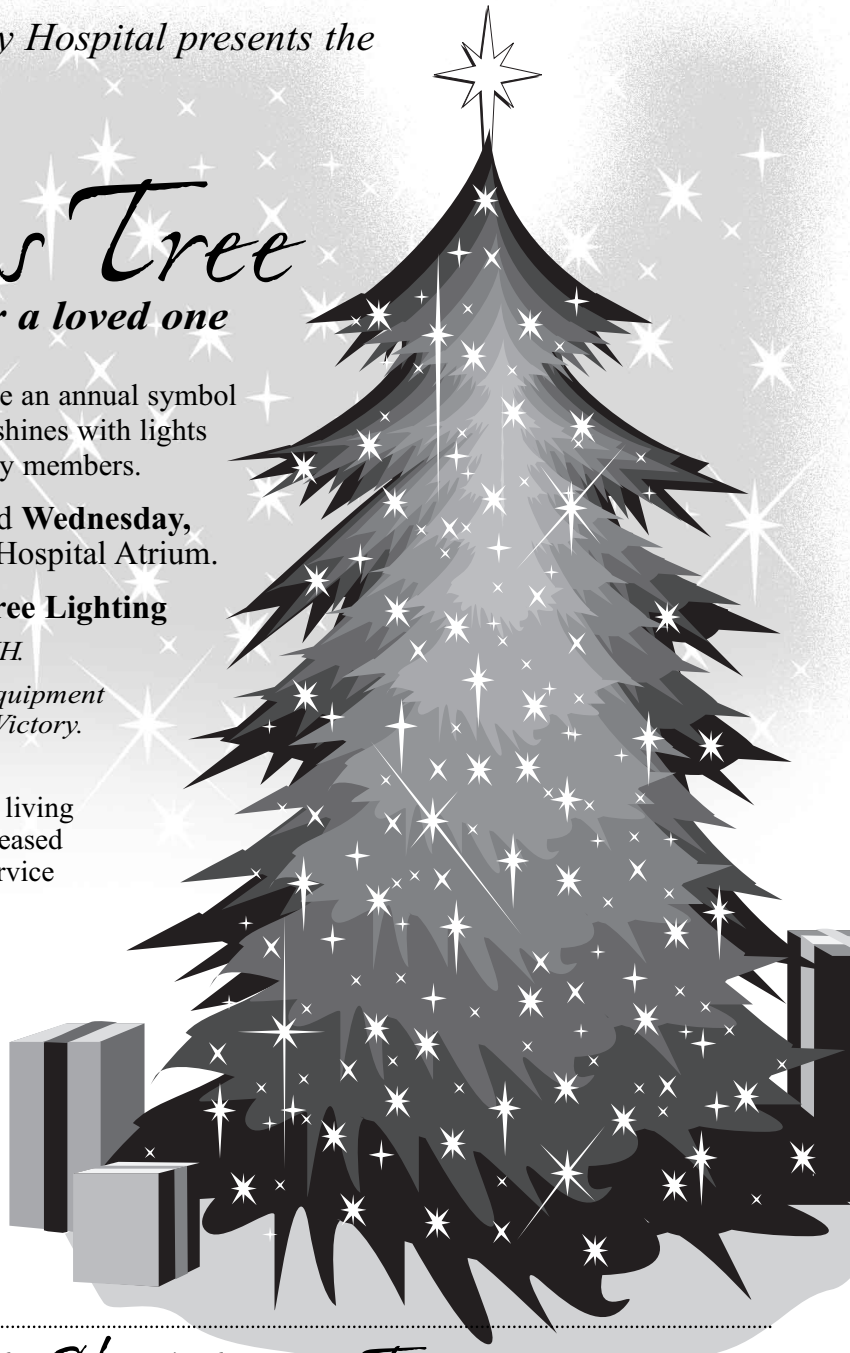

Reserve your lights today:

- Red and Green lights are to honor someone living
- White lights are in memory of someone deceased
- Blue lights are in honor OR memory of a service man or woman

We can send a card to the person honored or their family, if you'd like. The recipient's name will be published in the Stanley Republican and posted within the hospital. Please note: If you request a light after December 4, your honoree's name(s) will be included in an announcement that will be printed after Christmas.
